

Davanti Website Privacy Statement

General

Davanti Warehousing BV ("Davanti") has created this Privacy Statement to demonstrate our commitment to the individual's right to data protection and privacy. We respect the privacy of our visitors and customers and we ensure that the Personal Data we obtain is treated confidentially.

This Privacy Statement applies to the processing of data and the use of cookies via the website www.davantigroup.com ("Website") by Davanti and governs data collection, processing and usage. If you visit another website via a link on our Website, that website shall no longer be subject to our statement. Therefore, we recommend that you review the privacy statements of websites you choose to link to from our Website, so that you can understand how those websites collect, use and share your information. Davanti is not responsible for the privacy statements or other content on websites outside Davanti's own Website.

Collection of your Personal Data

When you visit our Website and register for our product and/or services, we may ask you to provide Personal Data like (a subset of) your name, (email) address, telephone number, company name and address, job title and role.

When you visit our Website and upload personal data for recruitment purposes you automatically agree that Davanti may use it for recruitment purposes such as assessing your skills and qualifications and consider you for any vacancies Davanti may have.

Data left for receiving newsletters will be stored in Mailchimp. Mailchimp is an online marketing tool for email campaigns (www.mailchimp.com).

Data left on the Website for download of whitepapers, demo's, contact, information requests, application for training courses and other services or uploaded application forms for vacancies, will temporarily be stored in the database of the Website and will be sent automatically by email to Davanti. After 30 days the data stored in the database of the Website will be deleted automatically.

Davanti will store your Personal Data, except the application documents for vacancies, in their CRM system (Microsoft CRM).

Information about your computer hardware and software may also be collected automatically by making use of cookies and/or web beacons. This information can include your browser type, domain names, access times and referring website addresses. This information will only be used for the purposes as described in the paragraph 'Use of Cookies'. Your IP address will be used and stored by Google Analytics only.

Use of your Personal Data

Employees of Davanti and its affiliated companies may access and use Personal Data only if they are authorized to do so (on a need to know basis) and only for the purpose for which they are authorized.

Personal Data left in Mailchimp will only be used for the purpose of email campaigns.

Personal Data left temporarily in the database of the Website will only be used for technical and security reasons. After the data is being sent to and received by Davanti, the data will automatically be deleted from the database.

Personal Data stored in Davanti's CRM system will only be used for marketing purposes.

The Personal Data and information you disclose for recruitment purposes will not be accessed by or transferred to third parties and will only be accessed by authorized employees in the Human Resource function of Davanti in the Netherlands and the direct managers with a vacancy to fill. The information you have submitted to Davanti will be held for a maximum of one (1) year. After this period the information will be deleted.

Furthermore, we collect and use your Personal Data to operate and optimize our Website. We also may use your Personal Data to invite you for events and when you have attended an event we can contact you for feedback.

Storage of Personal Data

All information you provide to us via the Website will be stored on servers in the European Economic Area (EEA). We will share information with our affiliated companies and with Davanti employees in and outside the EEA.

At Davanti, we do not retain your Personal Data for longer than necessary for the purposes for which we collected the data. You always have the right to view, change, remove or have Personal Data removed. Please contact us for further information.

Data collected via Cookies will be shared with Google.

Disclosure of Personal Data

We will not disclose any information you provide to us to any third party without your consent, except as stated in this Privacy Statement and unless we are required to do so by law. Google Analytics will have access to your data for analyzing purposes on behalf of Davanti.

Cookies

Cookies are small text files that can be used by websites to make a user's experience more efficient.

The law states that we can store cookies on your device if they are strictly necessary for the operation of our website. For all other types of cookies we need your permission.

We use cookies to personalise content and ads, to provide social media features and to analyse our traffic. We also share information about your use of our Website with our social media, advertising and analytics partners who may combine it with other information that you have provided to them or that they have collected from your use of their services.

This Website uses different types of cookies. Some cookies are placed by third party services that appear on our pages.

Necessary cookies help make a website usable by enabling basic functions like page navigation and access to secure areas of the website. The website cannot function properly without these cookies.

Statistic cookies help website owners to understand how visitors interact with websites by collecting and reporting information anonymously.

Marketing cookies are used to track visitors across websites. The intention is to display ads that are relevant and engaging for the individual user and thereby more valuable for publishers and third party advertisers.
